

RBV Values Statement

“Values are the attitudes and behaviors an organization embraces. They represent commitments we make regarding how we will behave on a daily basis in order to become the school we want to be. They are established and articulated guidelines we live by.” - Alan Blankstein

The RBV community--staff, students, and parents--uphold the following values:

- We are committed to working together.
- We accept shared responsibility to ensure success for all students.
- We accept personal responsibility for our intellectual and emotional growth.
- We respect one another and our environment.
- We communicate openly.
- We encourage innovation, creativity and change for ongoing school-wide improvement.
- We continuously evaluate and improve student support systems.
- We support exploration of local, national, and international challenges.
